The Pennsylvania GAZETTE.

Containing the freshest Advices Foreign and Domestick.

The SPEECH of the Honourable GEORGE THOMAS, Esq; Lieutenant Governor and Commander in Chief of the Province of Pennsylvania, and Counties of New-Castle, Kent and Sussex on Delaware; To the Representatives of the Freemen of the said Counties, in General Assembly met, at New-Castle the 20th Day of October, 1741.

GENTLEMEN,

SINCE I met the Assembly of this Government in October last, I received His Majesty's Commands from their Excellencies the Lords Justices; 'That I do take 'effectual Care for the future, that the Act of Parliament 'passed in the Sixth Year of Her late Majesty Queen 'ANNE, entitled, An Act for ascertaining the Rates of Foreign 'Coins in Her Majesty's Plantations in America, be punctually 'and bonâ fide observed and put in Execution, according to the 'true Intent and Meaning thereof. And that whereas many 'and great Inconveniences have arisen in some of His Majesty's 'Colonies and Plantations in America, by passing Laws for striking Bills of Credit, and issuing out the same in lieu of Money, 'making it obligatory on all Persons to take such Bills in Payment 'of Debts, Dues and Demands, whereby the aforementioned Act 'of the Sixth of Queen ANNE has been frustrated, and great 'Discouragement has been brought on the Commerce of Great-Britain, by occasioning a Confusion in Dealings, and a lessening of Credit in these Parts; I am required upon pain of His 'Majesty's highest Displeasure, not to give my Assent to, or 'pass any Act whereby Bills of Credit may be issued in lieu of 'Money, without a Clause be inserted in such Act, declaring, 'that the same shall not take Effect, until the said Act shall be 'approved by His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors.'

At the same time I received Letters from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners for Trade and Plantations, requiring, 'in Pursuance of an Address of the House of Commons to His 'Majesty, and His Majesty's Commands, an Account of the 'Tenor, and Amount of the Bills of Credit which have been 'created and issued in my Government; and my Opinion, what 'will be the most easy and effectual Manner of sinking and discharging all such Bills of Credit, with the least Prejudice to 'the Inhabitants, and Interruption of the Commerce of Great-Britain.' And further, 'That I should forthwith prepare a 'compleat Collection of all the Laws which have been made and 'are now in Force in this Government, to this present Time; 'and transmit the same to them with all convenient Expedition.'

As the Speaker of the Assembly last Year, who was at the same Time one of the Trustees of the Loan-Office, had furnished me with an Account of your Bills of Credit, in Pursuance of the like Orders I had then received from the Lords of Trade; I transmitted a Duplicate of that Account, without putting the Assembly to the Trouble and Expence of meeting for that Cause only: And I at the same time offer'd it as my Opinion to their Lordships, that your Bills of Credit could not be otherwise sunk and discharged, than in the Method and Manner prescribed by the Acts by which they were created and issued, without great Prejudice to the Inhabitants here, and Interruption of the Commerce of Great-Britain.

The Preparing and Printing a Collection of the Laws of this Government has been often under the Consideration of former Assemblies; but whether defer'd by the Apprehension of Expence, or the Trouble that would attend it, little has been done towards it. The Necessity and Utility of the Work are so evident, that I do not know how you can more effectually recommend yourselves to the Esteem of your Constituents, than by enabling me to comply with His Majesty's Commands in this Particular.

As by our last Accounts from London, all the Powers of Europe are Arming, and Matters seem now to be brought to such a Crisis, that it is generally apprehended a War with France is at no great Distance; the defenceless Condition of these Counties, exposed even to the Insults of a few Privateers, or to the Domestick Insurrections of the Negroes, spirited up by Emissaries from our Enemies (as is supposed to have been the case in some of the Neighbouring Colonies) must give every Man amongst you some melancholy Reflections: But as you do not want Numbers of Men sufficient to repel any Force that can be suddenly brought against you, it will be your own Faults, if you shall be at any time surprized unarmed and unacquainted with Discipline. I for my Part shall be willing to give my Assent to any Bill that shall be presented to me for your Security, and all the Assistance otherwise in my Power. An Act for establishing and regulating a Militia, may be so framed, as not to be burthensome to the People; and it is very far from my Inclination that it should be so. It will be no great Expence to such as are in tolerable Circumstances, to provide a good Firelock, Bayonet and Cartridge Box, nor any great Fatigue to them to meet at convenient Places Six Times in the Year to learn the Exercise. A Magazine of Arms may be purchased at the publick Expence, by such Degrees as your Circumstances shall admit of, for Arming such as shall not be able to purchase them themselves.

After the Zeal shewn by this Government, for His Majesty's Service and the Honour of our Mother Country, in Raising, Victualling and Transporting a Number of Men for the Expedition, I should be very unwilling to press you to any further Expence, but what my Duty absolutely requires of me, and is necessary for your Preservation: My own Interest is no ways concerned in the Resolutions you shall think fit to come to. When that has been in Question, I have always chosen to leave it to the Assembly, who ought to be the best acquainted with the Abilities of the People they represent. I have set a much higher Value upon the Regard and Affection this Government has shewn for me, than upon the Advantages which have accrued to me from it: And you may be assured of my ready Concurrence in every thing that you can in Reason ask of me for it's Benefit.

to

The Assembly's ADDRESS to the Honourable GEORGE THOMAS, Esq; Lieutenant Governor and Commander in Chief of the Government of the Counties of New-Castle, Kent and Sussex on Delaware, and Province of Pennsylvania.

May it please your Honour,

WE return your Honour hearty Thanks for communicating to us His Majesty's Commands, from their Excellencies the Lords Justices, for the due Observance of the Act of Parliament made in the Sixth Year of her late Majesty Queen Anne, entituled, An Act for the ascertaining the Rates of Foreign Coins in Her Majesty's Plantations in America, according to the true Intent and Meaning thereof; in order to prevent the Inconveniencies that have arisen in some of His Majesty's Colonies and Plantations in America, by passing Laws for striking Bills of Credit, and issuing out the same in lieu of Money, whereby the Credit of Trade hath been lessened.

Whereupon we take leave to observe to your Honour, that the several Acts heretofore made for emitting a Paper Currency within this Government, and those which now subsist, have been founded with a due Regard to the said Act of Parliament: And in such a Manner that the Credit of the said Currency hath hitherto been well supported, and the Trade of this Government thereby greatly encreased, without any visible Injury to the Commerce of Great-Britain.

We look on it as a particular Mark of your Honour's Favour to this Government, that you have been pleased to procure a State of our Bills of Credit in the Manner you express (without giving the Assembly the Trouble and Expence of Meeting on that occasion) and transmitting the same to the Lords of Trade in Great-Britain; and offering your Honour's favourable Opinion to their Lordships, agreeable to our Sentiments, that our Bills of Credit could not be otherwise sunk and discharged than in the Method and Manner prescribed by the Acts by which they were created and issued, without great Prejudice to the Inhabitants here, and Interruption of the Commerce of Great-Britain.

We agree with your Honour, that preparing and printing a Collection of the Laws of this Government, is a Work highly necessary and of great Importance to the Inhabitants thereof; of which the late Assembly was so sensible, that they have caused a considerable Number of Laws to be prepared for the Press, which are now Printing and near compleated. And we shall think it our Duty during this Sessions, to take proper Care that so needful a Work may be carried on in the best and speediest Manner that our Circumstances will admit: Whereby your Honour may be enabled to transmit Copies thereof to the Lords Commissioners for Trade and Plantations, pursuant to His Majesty's Crmmands.

As His Majesty is already engaged in a War with Spain, and from the Accounts we daily receive, we have just Reason to fear that a War with France is unavoidable; and as the defenceless State of this Government will expose us to the Insults of every Enemy, and make us liable to become a Prey to the first Invader: From a real Sense of our Danger, and from the Examples of all Nations and Governments, we shall take this Matter into our serious Consideration, in order to provide some Method of Defence for securing ourselves at least in some Measure against a foreign Enemy, as well as against the Danger of any domestick Insurrections from our Slaves, who of late have given us too much Reason to fear that they will become troublesome to us in like Manner as Negroes have been in some of our neighbouring Governments.

We are extremely obliged to your Honour for the great Regard and Concern you express, and have upon all Occasions shewn for the Safety and Welfare of this Government; and shall use our best Endeavours to deserve the Esteem your Honour is pleased to profess for us. And we think it a Happiness, that we have a Governor who is so willing to concur with us in every thing that is reasonable for the Benefit and Safety of the People we represent.

Signed by Order of the House,

THOMAS NOXON, Speaker.

New-Castle, the 22d of Octob. 1741.

FOREIGN AFFAIRS,

LONDON, August 8.

August 16 Notwithstanding the eager Sollicitations of the Courts of Vienna and Hanover, the Dutch still decline sending their Complement of Troops to the Succour of the Queen of Hungary, the Preparations of the Court of France having given them great Alarms, and they fearing, in case of a general War, to be made the first Victims.

A Report is current, that a Treaty has been concluded between France, the King of Prussia, and the Electors of Saxony, Palatine, Cologne, and Bavaria; by which Bohemia is allotted to Saxony, Silesia to Prussia, Bergue and Juliers to the Prince of Sultzbach, and the Empire to Bavaria. 'Tis added, that the French Troops will do nothing till the Election is over.

Four Thousand Musquets and a Train of Artillery, consisting of 30 large Pieces, have been sent from Douay to Boulogne.

Extract of a Letter from the Mate of the Agnes and Mary Brigantine, Capt. Pottle, that was taken by the Spaniards and carried into St. Sebastian's, dated July 14.

'On the 1st of July we were taken by a Spanish Privateer 'in Lat. 50 d. 20 m. fifty Leagues to the Westward of Scilly. 'We spy'd her at a great Distance to the Windward at about 'Nine o'Clock, and at Twelve she came up with us. We 'were not able to make any Resistance. Our Captain and 'two of the Men were fetch'd on board the Privateer, and 'myself, one Man and a Boy were left to our own Ship,

' under the Care of eight Spaniards, who were to carry us ' into St. Sebaſtians. The Day before our Misfortune ſhe ' took a Ship, belonging to Dartmouth; and two Days after ' ſhe ſnap'd up, about two Leagues from Cape Clear, a ' Brigantine belonging to Ireland, and a Snow for Phila- ' delphia from Briſtol; but as this laſt is not yet brought in, ' we are in hopes ſhe may be retaken. That very Day we ' ſaw twenty Sail of Britiſh Men of War; and had but one ' of them ſtep'd a little aſide to ſpeak with us we had all been ' retaken. 'Twas ten Days before we got into St. Sebaſtian's; ' and the Privateer arriv'd the ſame Day. We were well ' uſed whilſt on board. The King of Great-Britain's Bounty ' Money of 6d. a Day we are paid here once a Week by the ' Mayor, on whom I deſire you to ſend a Bill of Credit for ' 10l. There are at preſent about 60 Engliſh Priſoners here, ' but we expect ſhortly a March to Sarragoſſa, where there ' are about 250 more of our Countrymen, unleſs we are hap- ' pily prevented by an Exchange of Priſoners, the Cartel for ' which Purpoſe, 'tis ſaid, is in great Forwardneſs, and near ' ſettled; which you may be ſure is the impatient Wiſh of ' us all here.'

Aug. 15. Tueſday it was reported, that the Packet brought by the India Fleet is arriv'd and contains Diſpatches of Great Importance; among other Things, that the great Mogul had form'd ſome Deſigns againſt the Settlements of certain European Nations trading in his Dominions, and had aſſembled a numerous Army to put thoſe Deſigns in Execution; but as the Particulars are not deliver'd to us by proper Authority, we avoid ſaying too much on an Affair of ſuch Conſequence.

There is Advice from the Eaſt Indies, that Ponti-Cherry and Madraſs are both attack'd by the Indians; the former (a French-Settlement) by an Army of 150,000 Men, Foot and Horſe, and the latter by 100,000 Men.

Yeſterday it was reported that an Expreſs arriv'd with Advice, that the King of Sardinia had granted a free Paſſage through his Territories to the French and Spaniſh Troops; but we hope this News will not prove true.

His Majeſtys Ship the Greenwich is order'd to be victuall'd for Sea-Service with all Expedition.

BOSTON, Octob. 26.

We hear from Connecticut, that the aged and honourable Joſeph Talcott, Eſq, who has been Governor of that Colony for many Years, died at his Seat in Hartford the 11th Inſt.

Laſt Friday Capt. Smith, in a Brigantine belonging to this Town, arrived here from Barbadoes, who informs us, that on his Paſſage home (Lat. 28. 30.) not far from Bermuda, the 17th of September laſt, he was taken by a Spaniſh Privateer Sloop belonging to the Havanna, to which Place he was conducting his Prize, but on the 26th, about 40 Leagues from that Port, he happily (for Smith) met with Capt. Norton, in a Rhode Iſland Privateer, upon whom the Spaniard fired at ſome Diſtance, but Capt. Norton did not return the Fire, till the Spaniard came fairly up, when he gave him a Broadſide and Volley, which tore his Main-ſail to Pieces, and did him a great deal of other Damage, and the Diſpute continued very hot for the Space of two Hours and an half (the Veſſels being near together) each firing as faſt as they could load; and altho' the Spaniards (to do them Juſtice) fought bravely, yet the ſuperior Valour of our gallant Rhode-Iſlanders at laſt oblig'd them to ſurrender. Capt. Smith's Brig, who during the Engagement made the beſt of her Way for the Havanna, was ſoon after taken by Capt. Norton, and reſtored to her former Maſter Smith, with all his Men. The Spaniſh Privateer was a fine large new Sloop, Connecticut built, had 12 Carriage & as many Swivel Guns, and brought out 100 Men, but had put ſo many on board the Prizes they had taken (eight in Number that Cruize) that at the Engagement they had but 48. This Sloop was commanded by one Ponch, a Spaniard, and had on board two Renegade Engliſhmen, both Officers, who were far more cruel and barbarous to their Countrymen than the Spaniards themſelves, and 'tis to be hoped Capt. Norton will carry them to ſome Engliſh Port, where they may meet with their deſerved Fate. The Spaniards had four Men kill'd and nine wounded, beſides the Captain, who was ſhot in the Shoulder and Head; but Capt. Norton had not a Man killed or wounded, notwithſtanding he had two Six Pound Shots thro' his Maſt, and his Sails and Rigging much hurt. He put his Priſoners in Irons, and kept his Prize as a Privateer, intending to cruiſe with his two Sloops till the Spring, having 82 Men in both Veſſels. Capt. Norton had taken a Spaniſh Sloop before, which he diſpoſed of at Providence.

But to return to Capt. Smith: Having his Veſſel and People reſtored to him, he was, on his Paſſage Home, taken a ſecond Time in the Gulph of Florida, by a large Spaniſh Merchant-Ship from the Havanna, bound to Teneriff (ſuppoſed the Conſort to that in our Harbour) who plunder'd the Men of their Cloaths, Inſtruments, Stores, &c. and the Veſſel of her Anchors and Cables, four Swivel Guns and one Carriage, and five ſmall Arms, alſo moſt of her Sails, and a great Part of her Cargo, and forced away the Mate, with another Man and a Boy, and then gave the Veſſel with the remaining Part of the Cargo to Capt. Smith, for his own Uſe, obliging him to take an Oath, that neither Owners nor Freighters ſhould ever have any Part or Share of either of them.

The Beginning of laſt Week, Mr Joſeph Webb of New-Hanover, ſome Years ſince Miniſter of the Goſpel at Newark in the Jerſeys, and his Son, a Student at Yale-College, were drowned in paſſing over the Ferry at Seabrook.

WHEREAS many poor and indigent Perſons come from the neighbouring Provinces, Counties and Townſhips into this City, and there remain concealed, until the Perſons who imported them are gone away, or until ſuch Poor become ſick and unable to travel to the Place from whence they came, whereby they become chargeable to the Inhabitants of this City: And altho' the Tax raiſed for the Support of the Poor of this City be very conſiderable, yet by Reaſon of the great Reſort of ſuch poor Perſons from other Parts, it is apprehended the ſame will prove inſufficient.

This is therefore to give Notice, that the Laws of this Province in ſuch Caſe provided, will be ſtrictly put in Execution; and to the End that no Perſon may ſuffer through Ignorance of the ſame, it is thought proper to publiſh the following Abſtract of a Paragraph of a Law made in the Eighth Year of his preſent Majeſty's Reign, intitled, a Supplement to the ſeveral Acts of Aſſembly of this Province for the Relief of the Poor.

'And for the more effectual preventing Rogues, Vagabonds, and other 'idle and diſorderly Perſons concealing themſelves within the ſaid City, it is 'enacted, That if any Houſekeeper or Inhabitant ſhall receive or entertain 'any Perſon whatſoever (healthy Mariners and other Perſons coming immediately from Europe only excepted) not being Perſons who have gained a 'legal Settlement in ſome City or Townſhip within this Province, and ſhall 'not give Notice in Writing, which they are required to do within three 'Days, to the Overſeers of the Poor, ſhall forfeit and pay the Sum of Twenty 'Shillings, one half to the uſe of the Poor, the other half to the Informer, 'to be levied on the Goods and Chattels of the Delinquent; or for want of 'ſufficient Diſtreſs, the Offender to be committed to the Work-houſe, there 'to remain Ten Days.

'And moreover, in caſe the Perſon or Perſons ſo entertained or concealed, 'ſhall become Poor, and cannot be removed to the Place of his laſt legal Settlement, or ſhall happen to dye and not have wherewithal to defray the 'Charge of his Funeral, the Perſon convicted of entertaining or concealing 'ſuch poor Perſon, ſhall provide for, and maintain him; and in caſe of his 'Death, ſhall pay the Overſeers the Charge of his Funeral; and upon Refuſal, 'the Overſeers are to aſſeſs a Sum of Money for that Purpoſe on the Perſon 'ſo convict, by a weekly Aſſeſſment; and upon Refuſal to pay the Sums ſo 'aſſeſſed, the ſame ſhall be levied on the Goods and Chattels of the Offender; 'and for want of ſufficient Diſtreſs, the Offender to be committed to Priſon, there to remain until the ſame be paid, or until he be diſcharged by due 'order of Law.
